The Society of Core Analysts (SCA) is thrilled to announce its 2025 Symposium, taking place for the first time in Germany!

Join us from August 25th to 29th, 2025 at the Hannover Congress Centrum (HCC) for an exciting week of cutting-edge discussions, networking, and industry insights.

Whether you're attending as an individual, representing a company, or looking to sponsor and support the event, don’t miss this unique opportunity to be part of a groundbreaking SCA Symposium.

For questions regarding the location, participation, sponsorship, or support, please reach out to the 2025 VP of Arrangements, Matthias Halisch or our Executive Director, Melanie Young.

Stay tuned for more details!
